serve dinner and we would go there and buy our dinner."

Before our departure, DS served Christmas cookies and cranberry juice — we sat at the table in her kitchen and enjoyed the cookies & juice.

DS is an extremely alert woman of 94 years; very gracious & well informed. She was delighted by our visit & allowed me to borrow some genealogical material on the "Anderson descendants that was" collected by Florence Bell McCann in or about 1965 [and] Typed for Aunt Delilah Briggs by Jeanine Ayers Scott in 1980."]
